

FAMILY DIVIDED IN SCHAFMEISTER ROW

Wife Sues Brothers-in-Law for Alleged Assault, and Even Juries Disagree.

"The House of Schafmeister has widened" would be a good title for the suit of Mrs. Annie F. Schafmeister, church and social worker, against her brother-in-law, Dr. John A. Schafmeister, wealthy physician of Ocassaw, for $10,000 damages for alleged assault, which was tried before Justice of the Peace Arthur S. Tompkins and a jury at White Plains yesterday.

On the plaintiff's side was her daughter, several clergymen and several friends, while the defendant's counsel, a distinguished member of the bar, and a jury, selected for the occasion.

Mrs. Schafmeister, 35, married and well known, testified that on the evening of April 21, 1917, she went for a walk with her husband in front of her house, who she said was intoxicated.

She said Dr. Schafmeister, an soon as entered her home, swore at her and then without cause violently struck her, threatened her eyes, and forced her back against an iron bed, bending the rods and choking her.

Dr. Schafmeister in his own defense said that when he reached his brother-in-law's house his sister-in-law began "blowing" him out, and accused him of murdering his wife, who died in 1894. He said she threw a book at him, cutting his cheek, and then tried to hit him with a hand mirror. He admitted that he had once struck the plaintiff. The jury failed to agree and was discharged late last night.

CHICAGOANS BOUGHT MARKS.

Huge Speculations in German Currency Have Been Made.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The "Sixth Corner City," as Mayor Thompson once designated Chicago, is having tremendous jolts in huge speculations in German marks. Marks have been continuously bought here since depression first set in and the lower they fell the greater seemed the Chicago purchasing power.

Wealthy Germans and their American friends played up marks, having confidence in the efficiency and ability of Germany to come back. It is estimated that Chicago is spending half a billion in marks. The present quotation is 1.56 cents.
